Order Requesting Comments on Possible Additional Rate Design Filing Requirements

If parties have time, please add to your May 23 comments on the draft rate design filing requirements the following possible additions to those filing requirements. To be clear, I am not requesting by this Order your comments on the merits of these ideas. I am requesting only your comments on whether to include these four item in the rate design filing requirements that will apply to the July 3 application.

- Explain why the current customer class definitions remain reasonable in light of changes since 2017 in facts affecting Puerto Rico's electricity system.
- Identify any situations where a consolidation of existing customer classes might assist customers by reducing complexity, increasing efficiency, or otherwise.
- Identify any advantages or disadvantages of placing net-metering customers into their own class.
- Identify any advantages or disadvantages of recovering the costs associated with any one or more of the subsidy categories through the fixed customer charge rather than through the current volumetric charge.
